Media Tour

Each year a cross section of VIP and Media are offered a tour prior to the Savour Show opening. The selection of booths visited is rotated each year to allow exposure to all exhibitors. You are encouraged to request to be on the media tour and inform us of anything special of note.

The media are a cross section of local, Atlantic and National publications. They receive a press kit before the Savour Show and are informed of anything restaurants and beverage suppliers note to us. This is another great opportunity that RANS offers to its members for public exposure and marketing.

*Various Media personnel and photographers will be present throughout the entire Savour food & wine Show.
